

LOCAL MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Paragraphs Which Tell of the Happenings of Local Moment in Greater St. Joseph

Anything Which Has Occurred Deserving of Local Notice Can Be Found in These Columns

The school board on Monday night selected all of the teachers for the coming term of school. The list comprises nearly all of the old corps, and a general raise of $200 per year was accorded them.

Judge A. B. Duncan lectured to the Buchanan County League of Women Voters Tuesday.

A purse snatcher relieved Mrs. B. Head of her pocketbook and $5 in cash as she was walking along Parson near Ninth, Monday night.

A number of tools were stolen from the Grand Island tool shops Monday night.

When John Murphy awoke from a drunk Tuesday morning, he found himself in a second street rooming house, and $280 in cash missing.

Jamieson Machine Co., engineers and machinists' supplies. Shafting, bangers, pulleys. 215 No. 2nd.—Adv.

Dennis Aubuchon, a rural mail carrier, was pinned beneath his car Monday when it overturned on the Amazonia road, and considerably bruised.

The steel safe stolen from Bellan's Bakery Sunday night was found on the Lemon farm Tuesday, broken open and its contents missing.

Lester Gaines and James Brogan pleaded guilty in criminal court Tuesday to an attempt to rob, and were given two years each in the pen.

Mrs. Mary Cook, wife of the late Joseph E. Cook, former city license inspector, died Monday night.

The Medical and Dental Veterans of the late war organized a local association Monday night.

Three motorists paid $15 each in police court Tuesday for speeding.

M. J. Downey for best Plumbing and Gas Fitting. 1902 Frederick Ave. Phone 116.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jessopp have received notice that their son, Dudley M. Jessopp, a sophomore at the University of Chicago, has been pledged to the "Order of the Iron Mask," which is the highest honor that can come to a junior.

The Shrine carnival played the great business all week and was in every way a decided success.

The police commissioners at their meeting Monday decided not to allow police officers to do special duty outside of the city limits this year. Six officers were allowed to resign from the force on account of the shortage of funds.

The Crystal Theater is being remodelled at an expense of $75,000.

Charles L. Plummer, an electrician, died Sunday, as the result of a severe electrical shock.

Everything you need for any kind of Painting, Wall paper, Chandler's Paint & Glass Co., 417 Edmond street.—Adv.

In a quarrel Sunday, Joseph Messa, foreman for a contracting gang, was shot by a fellow workman named Delorus Ponce and dangerously wounded. Delorus was arrested.

It cost Russell Hoover, 2409 Doniphan Avenue, $15 in police court Monday for Sunday speeding.

Mayor Marshall named a committee Wednesday, which met at the city hall yesterday, and began an investigation of city finances: Frank A. Moore, L. M. Smith, H. J. Mueller, R. W. Melick, B. G. Voorhees, G. L.

Zwick, C. L. Faust, L. T. Golding, C. D. Morris, J. L. Davidson, John W. Pait, Ralph Costigan, H. McKendry, W. C. Green and W. W. Wheeler.

Thieves entered C. R. Bellon's bakery at 2601 Lafayette, Sunday night, and not only stole a $50 Liberty bond, but carried away a 150 pound steel safe as well.

Minnie Mack, colored, was arrested Monday for "carving up" Rose Morton, also colored, in a little Sunday afternoon matinee performance.

Walter Gore plead guilty before Judge Uitz Monday to holding up A. H. Elsbury Dec. 1st and robbing him, and was given seven years in the pen.

Dr. W. L. Kenney was appointed executive officer of the new Rifle Club of Jack Schneider Post at a meeting held Sunday.

Melcherhoff Undertaking Co. presents character, service and consideration. Ninth and Felix. Phone M. 865.—Adv.

Harry L. George, the Indian relic collector, has loaned a fine collection of Indian relics to the public library.

William Prebeno, a Rulo, Neb., youth, was brought to a hospital here Sunday suffering from a bullet wound in the neck, accidentally inflicted.

Van Allen Fry of Klamath Falls, Oregon, and Robert McCord and John Miller of Kansas City were arrested here Sunday with a stolen car in their possession. They were taken back to Kansas City.

Mrs. Vida M. Boyce, formerly of this city, died in a Kansas City hospital Sunday.

The funeral of Cecil Gore, the restaurant man who was shot by his wife, occurred at Rushville, his old home, Sunday. Interment was in Sugar Creek cemetery.

Marry for wealth, happiness. Hundreds rich, attractive, congenial, willing to wed. Photos free. Mrs. Warr, 2214 1/2 Temple St., Los Angeles, Cal.—(Adv.)

The St. Joseph teachers, Ralph W. Polk, Miss Cecelia Crawford, Anna E. Riddle and Katherine Spencer, who appeared before the state board of equalization Tuesday in behalf of an increased assessment in order that teachers' pay may be further raised, returned home quite well satisfied with their work before the board.

The Junior H. O. T. C. held a tournament at League Park Wednesday, which was largely attended, and in which the contests were spirited.

Mrs. Mary J. Painter, wife of John T. Painter, a former well known Burlington contractor, died Wednesday.

In order that school teachers who may desire to leave as soon as the school term is completed, the board will issue the pay checks for the month on May 23.

Rock Undertaking Co. Lady attendant, 216 Frederick avenue.—Adv.

The widening of the Easton-Saxton road has been stopped because John Karnes and Henry Roach refuse to give 25 feet for the right of way. It is hoped to adjust the difficulty.

The letter carriers have donned their straw hats and denim waists.

Ed C. Guyer, a well known Graham hardware dealer, was in the city Wednesday.

W. B. Smith, a street railway line-man, had his skull slightly fractured Tuesday when a fellow workman dropped a fuse on his head.

Don Riley's Motor Inn. Storage and best repair department in city. Ladies' rest room and free check room in connection. Seventh and Julia.—Adv.

Supt. Morris of the free labor bureau is now lining up all the men he can get for the harvest rush.

Samuel Grinspan, a Russian Jew, who fought with the British army in Palestine, leaving here in 1914 for that purpose, now finds that he cannot complete his naturalization papers on account of his British army oath, and must now live here five years before he can properly qualify.

It cost John Chambers, a carnival employee, $5 in police court Wednesday for failure to respond to a drunk charge.

A. B. Sanford, assistant manager of the Robidoux, returned Wednesday from Champaign, Ill., where he assisted at the Walton funerals.

Prof. Ira Richardson, head of the State Teachers College at Maryville, was the speaker at the Commerce Club luncheon Wednesday.

Fire did $2,000 worth of damage at the home of Charles F. Bayer, vice president of the Van Natta Drug Co., Wednesday morning.

NOTICE—Save all rags, iron, books, magazines and all kinds of waste paper, as prices are very high. Don't sell before you call us, or write, American Paper Stock Co., Main 3985, 802 South 8th St. (Adv.)

M. G. Roberts, general counsel for the Burlington here, was this week appointed commerce counsel for the Frisco, with headquarters in St. Louis.

Leroy Moore of this city, a soldier with the army of occupation in Germany, died at Mayen, Germany, April 11, from the accidental discharge of a gun.

Virgil B. Brown and Theodore Washington, both colored, were given two years each in the pen Wednesday for forgery.

The Missouri on Wednesday was six inches above high water mark.

A large number of St. Joseph bankers attended the annual meeting of the Missouri Bankers Association at Kansas City this week.

The police force on account of the retrenchment now necessary has been cut to forty-two men. The department is twenty-two short of normal.

Dr. O. A. Orr, osteopathic, eye, ear, nose and throat specialist. Cataract deafness treated successfully. Glasses fitted. Office hours, 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday, and by appointment, 404 Corby-Forsce building. Phone Main 1837.—(Adv.)

Beeler Fitzmaurice of this city was brought home Tuesday from Forest City where he was injured in a gasoline explosion in the garage at the home of George Hinkle near Fortescue. The explosion killed Mrs. Hortense Hinkle, who was sitting in a car some distance from the explosion. She was the daughter of Mrs. T. P. Fitzmaurice, the well known democratic Fourth district committeeman.

Mayor Marshall has joined the Hyde-for-governor club, and the gopa see great political significance in this move of the mayor.

The street railway men have asked the management for a 22 per cent increase in salary. The management says that it would increase the pay roll $120,000 per year, which it cannot stand at this time.

Jack Tracy, who was arrested last week, charged with stealing whiskey from George Weiss, was again arrested Tuesday by Marshal Wheeler, charged with transporting liquor. He gave bond for $2,500 before Commissioner Duncan.

Joseph B. Kerr, who left the traffic department of the stock yards company years ago, will return to the company service next month.

Overcome by gas which escaped through a manhole over which he was working, Joseph Libble, sixty-eight years of age, employed by the St. Joseph Gas Co., was taken to a hospital Thursday, where it was necessary to use a lungmotor on him to bring him back to life.

I. N. Lewis, a welder in the employ of the street railway company, while welding rails at Twenty-third and Lafayette Thursday came in contact with a 500 volt current, and was knocked senseless. He was sent to a hospital.

Mrs. W. K. James was re-elected corresponding secretary of the Missouri League of Women Voters at the Thursday session of the League, held at St. Louis this week.

At the session of the grand Lodge of Odd Fellows held at Sedalia this week, Lucien J. Eastin of this city was elected grand representative. John L. Beaglier of Savannah was elected grand treasurer.

According to a decision handed down by the circuit court of appeals, damages done to private property in grading for streets and alleys must be paid. Mrs. Brant Bray of this city won over the city and the Land Construction Company.

Thirty-three women who had completed the Red Cross course in home nursing, were given certificates Tuesday.

Dr. M. L. Hartwell of this city was elected president of the Missouri Osteopathic Association at the annual convention held in St. Louis this week.

City Attorney Stigall was notified Thursday that the Frederick Avenue paving case had as per his request been advanced on the supreme court docket to the October term.

The building permits so far issued this month are over $140,000.

Rev. O. C. Schroeder of Kansas City delivered a sermon in the sign language to the mutes of this city at the Lutheran church Friday night.

A. L. Lehr and R. E. Freeman were each fined $15 in police court Thursday for speeding.

Elbert F. Spencer of DeKalb has filed for re-election as representative from the Third district. Of course he is a democrat.

Three booze hunters invaded John Henley's cellar, 2514 Mitchell Avenue, Wednesday night, but were frightened away.

WILL OVERMAN GAVE LIFE FOR FRIEND

While a number of small boys were bathing in the Missouri opposite Dug Cut, Tuesday, Glenn Woods got beyond his depth and started to do the drowning act. His chum, William H. Overman, 212 East Linn street, jumped in to help him, and was himself drowned. The Woods boy was rescued by other companions. This drowning will be followed at regular intervals all through the summer—it cannot be stopped.

TO GET HELP FROM RICH CITIZENS

The six councilmen and a committee of six citizens who from the city council advisory commission, met at the city hall Thursday night and went over a list prepared by city assessor Akers. The list comprises the one hundred richest men in St. Joseph, and they will be asked to make contributions to get the city out of its present financial troubles.

$ DOLLAR DAY

MAY-25th

ST. JOSEPH'S GREATEST BARGAIN EVENT

EMBRACING THE ENTIRE RETAIL DISTRICT

An occasion when the entire retail fraternity has Combined to reduce the HIGH COST of living on a scale never before attempted

TUESDAY MAY-25- COME EARLY STAY LATE

GREATER DOLLAR DAY BARGAINS

EVERY DEPARTMENT STORE
EVERY DRY GOODS STORE
EVERY CLOTHING STORE
EVERY SHOE STORE

EVERY CARPET STORE
EVERY MUSIC STORE
EVERY SEED STORE
EVERY DRUG STORE
EVERY TOY STORE

HIGH COST OF LIVING REDUCED

In fact, Every kind of business Offers Exceptional BIG $ DAY BARGAINS

BIG DOLLAR DAY SALE

TUESDAY MAY-25- TUESDAY MAY-25-

UNDER AUSPICES OF RETAIL DIVISION OF THE COMMERCE CLUB & ST. JOSEPH STORES ASSOCIATION

MAKING SKIPPED WITH THE CASH
When the negro porter at the St. Charles hotel returned at 5:20 Thursday morning from an errand on which the night clerk, Walter Nash, had sent him some time before, Nash was missing and so was about $70 in cash which was in the money till. Nash had been at the hotel but a short time, and but little is known of his antecedents. He is supposed to have headed for Kansas City.

Frank McFarland, superintendent of the Seventh division of the Railway Mail Service, with headquarters at St. Louis, was in the city Thursday and Friday.

The Missouri was 127 above low water mark Thursday, the highest of the season.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT
Notice is hereby given to all creditors and others interested in the estate of Edmund Heyman, deceased, that I, Rose Heyman, Administratrix of said estate, intend to make Final Settlement thereof at the next term of the Probate Court of Buchanan County, State of Missouri, to be held at the court house in St. Joseph, Missouri, on the first Monday of June, 1929.

ROSE HEYMAN, Administratrix.

EXECUTRIX NOTICE
Notice is hereby given that Letters Testamentary upon the estate of Franklin Jones, deceased, have been granted to the undersigned, by the Probate Court of Buchanan County, Missouri, bearing date of the 11th day of May, 1929.

the date of the publication of this notice, they will be forever barred. A true copy. Attest: MARY E. JONES, (Seal) Executrix. Fred M. Wanger, Clerk of Probate.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE
Notice is hereby given that Letters of Administration, with Will annexed, upon the estate of America Robinson, deceased, have been granted to the undersigned, by the Probate Court of Buchanan County, Missouri, bearing date of the 25th day of November, 1929.

All persons having claims against said estate are required to exhibit them to me for allowance, within six months from date of said letters, or they may be precluded from any benefit of such estate, and if said claims be not exhibited within one year from the date of the publication of this notice, they will be forever barred. A true copy. Attest: MARY A. WILLIAMS, (Seal) Public Administrator. Fred M. Wanger, Clerk of Probate. (522)

Our Motto: "Special Attention to Out-of-Town Orders."

Suitable Gifts for the 1920 Graduate

Why Not Buy Where the Selection Is Good?

The 1920 Graduate will appreciate Leather Goods, Boudoir Lamps, Vanity Boxes, Candlesticks for dressing table, Purses, Fancy Powder Boxes, Quill Pens, Desk Sets, Fancy Stationery, Fancy Pin Cushions, Sachets, Incense Burners and an assortment of Incense, French Bouquets, Fancy Garters, Lingerie Sets, Fancy Waste Baskets, Door Stops, Enamel Pins, Mirrors, Book Ends and Diary Books and many other gifts suited to the 1920 demand.

Preserve your diploma in one of our especially neat and tasty frames. Largest selection in the city to choose from.

A beautiful offering in GRADUATION CARDS for your approval.

Deborah's Art & Gift Shop

719-721 Francis St. St. Joseph, Mo. Phone Main 2329

"See Me First"

Now Located in Room 208, Corby-Forsce Bldg.

General Insurance Fidelity and Surety Bonds

H. G. F. Schmidt

Phone M. 2247. St. Joseph, Mo.